THE BUSINESS REGISTRATION SERVICE BILL, 2015

A Bill for

AN ACT of Parliament to establish the Business Registration Service to ensure effective administration of the laws relating to the incorporation, registration, operation and management of companies, partnerships and firms, and for connected purposes

ENACTED by the Parliament of Kenya as follows—

PART I—PRELIMINARY

1. This Act may be cited as the Business Registration Service Act, 2015 and shall come into operation on such date as the Cabinet Secretary may, by notice in the Gazette, appoint.

Short title and commencement.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

Interpretation.

“Board” means the Board of Directors established by section 5;

“Cabinet Secretary” means the Cabinet Secretary for time being responsible for matters relating to business registration;

“chairperson” means the chairperson of the Board appointed under section 5.

“member” means a member of the Board appointed under section 5;

“Service” means the Business Registration Service established by section 3;

“Registrar- General” means the Registrar-General appointed under section 17.

PART II—ESTABLISHMENT, OBJECTS AND FUNCTIONS OF THE SERVICE.

3. (1) There is established the Business Registration Service.

Establishment of the Service.

(2) The Service shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal and shall in its corporate name be capable of—

- (a) suing and being sued;
- (b) purchasing or otherwise acquiring, holding, charging and disposing of movable and immovable property;
- (c) borrowing money; and
- (d) doing or performing all such other things or acts as may be necessary for the proper performance of its functions under this Act, which may lawfully be done by a body corporate.

(3) The headquarters of the Service shall be in the capital city but the Service may establish branches in any other place in Kenya to ensure reasonable access of its services.

4. (1) The Service shall, under the general supervision of the Cabinet Secretary, be responsible for the implementation of policies, laws and other matters relating to the registration of companies, partnerships and firms, individuals and corporations carrying on business under a business name, bankruptcy, societies, hire purchase, trade unions, chattels transfers, adoptions, coat of arms, books and newspapers, the National flag, emblems and names.

Functions of the Service.

(2) Notwithstanding the generality of subsection (1), the Service shall—

- (a) carry out all registrations required under this Act;
- (b) maintain registers, data and records on registrations carried out by the Service;
- (c) implement relevant policies and guidelines and provide the Cabinet Secretary with the necessary information to guide the formulation of policy and amendment of existing policy and guidelines;
- (d) carry on research and disseminate research findings in the fields covered by the relevant laws through seminars, workshops, publications or other means and to recommend to the Government any improvements in the relevant laws;
- (e) collaborate with other state agencies for the effective discharge of its functions;
- (f) charge fees for any service performed by the Service; and

- (g) perform such other functions as may be necessary under this Act.

PART III—ADMINISTRATION

5. (1) The Service shall be governed by a board of directors.

The Board of the Service.

(2) The Board shall consist of—

- (a) a chairperson;
- (b) the Attorney-General or his representative;
- (c) the Principal Secretary in the Ministry for the time being responsible for matters relating to trade;
- (d) the Principal Secretary in the State Department for the time being responsible for matters relating to devolved government;
- (e) the Principal Secretary in the National Treasury;
- (f) four other members; and
- (g) the Registrar-General who shall be an ex-officio member.

(2) The chairperson and the members of the Board referred to in subsection (1) (f) shall be appointed by the Cabinet Secretary from among persons who have knowledge and proven experience in matters relating to this Act.

6. (1) The chairperson and a member appointed under section 5(1)(g) shall hold office—

Tenure of members of Board.

- (a) for a term of five years but shall be eligible for re-appointment for one further term; and
- (b) on such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Cabinet Secretary.

(2) The office of the chairperson or a member shall become vacant if the holder—

- (a) dies;
- (b) is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Board without reasonable cause;
- (c) resigns from office by notice in writing addressed to the Cabinet Secretary;

- (d) is unable to perform the functions of the office arising out of physical or mental infirmity;
- (e) is negligent or incompetent in the performance of his or her functions;
- (f) is adjudged or otherwise declared bankrupt under any law in force in Kenya;
- (g) violates Chapter Six of the Constitution; or
- (h) is convicted of a criminal offence and sentenced to imprisonment for a term of not less than six months.

7. The Board shall—

Functions of the Board.

- (a) formulate and review the policies of the Service;
- (b) ensure that the Service performs its functions;
- (c) monitor and evaluate the performance of the Service;
- (d) appoint, train, discipline and remove members of staff of the Service;
- (e) establish departments within the Service and allocate responsibilities to such departments; and
- (f) perform such other functions as prescribed by this Act or any other written law.

8. The Board shall have all powers necessary for the proper performance of its functions under this Act and in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall have power to—

Powers of the Board.

- (a) control, supervise and administer the assets of the Service in such manner as best promotes the functions for which the Service is established;
- (b) determine the provisions to be made for capital and recurrent expenditure and for reserves of the Board;
- (c) receive any grants, gifts, donations or endowments and make legitimate disbursements therefrom;
- (d) enter into association with such other bodies or organizations within or outside Kenya as it may consider desirable or appropriate and in furtherance of the functions for which the Service is established;

(e) open a banking account or banking accounts for the funds of the Service; and

(f) invest any of its funds not immediately required for its functions in the manner provided in section 27.

9. (1) The Board shall conduct its business and affairs in accordance with the Schedule.

Meetings of the Board.

(2) Except as provided in the Schedule, the Board may regulate its own procedure.

(3) The Board may co-opt any person to attend any of its meetings but that person shall not vote at such meeting.

10. The chairperson, members of the Board and staff of the Service shall be paid such remuneration or allowances as the Board may, with the approval of the Cabinet Secretary, determine.

Remuneration of members.

11. The Board may, by resolution either generally or in any particular case, delegate to any committee of the Board or to any member, officer, employee or agent of the Board, the exercise of any of the powers or the performance of any of the functions or duties of the Board under this Act or under any other written law.

Delegation by the Board.

12. The validity of any proceedings of the Board shall not be affected by any vacancy among its members or by any defect in the appointment of any member or by the fact that a person who was not entitled to do so took part in the proceedings of the board.

Vacancy not to affect proceedings.

13. (1) The Board may establish such committees as it shall consider necessary for the efficient performance of its functions under this Act.

Committees of the Board.

(2) The Board may co-opt into the membership of a committee established under subsection (1), any person whose knowledge and skills are considered necessary for the effective discharge of the functions of the Board.

14. (1) The Board may, on the advice of the Registrar-General engage the service of experts and consultants in respect of any of the functions of the Service.

Engagement of experts and consultants.

(2) An expert or consultant engaged under this section may be paid such fees and allowances as the Board may determine.

15. No matter or thing done by a member of the Board or any officer, employee or agent of the Board shall, if the matter or thing is done bona fide for executing the functions, powers or duties of the Board, render the member, officer, employee or agent or any person acting on his directions personally liable to any action, claim or demand.

Protection from Personal liability.

16. The provisions of section 15 shall not relieve the Board of the liability to pay compensation or damages to any person for an injury to him, his property or any of his interests caused by the exercise of the powers conferred on the Board by this Act or by any other written law or by the failure, whether wholly or partially, of any works.

Liability of the Board for

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The objective of this Bill is to establish the Business Registration Service as a state corporation under the general supervision of the Attorney-General in order to improve efficiency.

Part I of the Bill deals with preliminary matters.

Part II establishes the Business Registration Service and sets out its functions which include carrying out all registrations required under the Act, maintaining registers, data and records on registrations carried out by the Service, implementing relevant policies and guidelines and providing the Cabinet Secretary with the necessary information to guide the formulation of policy and amendment of existing policy and guidelines, and carrying on research and disseminating research findings in the fields covered by the relevant laws and recommending, to the Government, any improvements in the relevant laws.

Part III provides for the administration of the Service and sets out the composition of the Board of the Service, its functions and powers and provides for the circumstances under which a vacancy may arise on the Board. The Part further provides for delegation by the Board and empowers the Board to establish committees for the better performance of its functions.

Part IV provides for the management and staff of the Service. Clause 18 provides for the appointment of the Registrar-General as the Chief Executive Officer of the Service in a competitive manner. Clause 19 provides for the circumstances under which the Registrar-General may be removed from office.

Part V of the Bill sets out the financial provisions in relation to the Service. Clause 23 provides for the funds of the Service. Clause 25 provides for the preparation of annual estimates of the Service.

Part VI contains miscellaneous provisions. Clause 28 provides for the report of the Service and the matters that should be contained therein. Clause 29 creates offences by prohibiting a person from obstructing or hindering a member of the service, submitting false information to a member of staff of the Service or misleading a member of staff of the service. Clause 30 empowers the Cabinet Secretary to make Regulations.

The Schedule provides for the manner in which the meetings and other affairs of the Board will be conducted.

The enactment of the Bill will occasion additional expenditure of public funds which shall be provided for through the estimates.

Dated the 8th April, 2015.

ADEN DUALE,
Leader of the Majority Party.
