

Brief Profile

John Ekadah

Building a better
working world

John Ekadah: Brief Profile

- ▶ John Ekadah has over 7 years' experience in the field of investigations, compliance and training specifically revolving around fraud and corruption, investigations, internal controls and compliance, risk assessment and dispute service. John is currently a Senior Forensic Auditor with Ernst & Young (EY) and an Adjunct Lecturer at KCA University. John is a holder of a Master of Commerce (Forensic Accounting) degree and a Bachelor of Commerce (Finance) degree from Strathmore University. He is also a Certified Public Accountant of Kenya.
- ▶ Before joining EY, John previously worked for Coca-Cola CEWA where he carried out internal audit compliance assignments covering Central, East and West African countries. John has also worked for PKF Consulting Limited where he was in charge of forensic assignments in the newly established forensic department. Finally, John has worked as an Assistant Lecturer at Strathmore University.
- ▶ He has carried out forensic investigations in various industries including retail, non-governmental, governmental motor vehicle, tobacco, hospitality, clubs and societies, financial services, beverages, construction, oil and gas, insurance among other
- ▶ John has experience working on assignments in Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania, South Sudan, Sudan, Malawi, Zambia, Zimbabwe, Ivory Coast, Cameroon, Nigeria, Rwanda, Burundi, Mauritius, Seychelles, and Ghana.