PRESS RELEASE

APPOINTMENT OF CPA EDWIN MAKORI AS THE AG. CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

April 04th, 2017, Nairobi:

The Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Kenya (ICPAK) is pleased to announce the appointment of CPA Edwin Makori as the Acting Chief Executive Officer of the ICPAK with effect from today (4th April 2017).

This follows the exit of the current Chief Executive Officer, Dr. Patrick Ngumi, at the end of his contract with the Institute. DDr. Ngumi has been the head of the Institute since July 2014 in a period characterized by exponential growth in membership, institutional strengthening, customer service among other major corporate milestones.

CPA Makori, brings with him over 14 years' corporate leadership and management experience, four of which are in the Professional Accountancy Institute. Prior to his appointment, he was the Institute's General Manager in charge of Professional Services.

He holds an MBA in Business Administration (Finance) from University of Nairobi, and a Bachelor of Commerce Degree from the same institution. CPA Makori is a Certified Public Accountant and a member of the Information Systems, Audit Control Association (ISACA) as well as a member of Institute of Leadership Management ILM (UK).

The Institute's Council is confident that business operations of the Institute will continue to run smoothly under the leadership of CPA Makori pending a competitive sourcing for a substantive Chief Executive Officer. With full responsibility of safeguarding public interest and a commitment to providing exceptional professional services and preserve the integrity of our profession, CPA Makori will play a key role in entrenching the Institute as an influential voice premised on a solid foundation from which to guide the profession now and in the days to come.
