Excise Stamps on Bottled Water, Juices, Soda, other Non-Alcoholic Beverages and Cosmetics

Kenya Revenue Authority, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 28 of the Excise Duty Act, 2015, as read together with Legal Notice no. 53 of 2017 Excise Duty (Excisable Goods Management System) Regulations, Kenya Revenue Authority wishes to inform the public on the roll out of excise stamps on bottled water, juices, soda in PET, energy drinks, other non-alcoholic beverages, food supplements and cosmetics.

With effect from 1st November 2017, all the affected goods manufactured or imported into Kenya shall be affixed with excise stamps in accordance with the regulations.

In order to ensure compliance, licenced manufacturers and registered importers of the affected products are advised to;

- Facilitate KRA technical teams to access the production lines for purposes of determining the installation requirements,
- Comply with the guidelines for the installation of the system on each production line,
- Submit full details of their brands and register for use of EGMS system by the 19th October, 2017

Further, KRA invites manufacturers and importers for follow up consultations to be held on 12th October, 2017 and 27th October, 2017 starting 10:00 am on the 5th floor Convention Centre, Times Tower, Nairobi.
