PROFILE

I hold an MBA in Finance from the University of Nairobi, a Bachelors of Commerce Degree (Hons) from the Catholic University of Eastern Africa (CUEA) and a CPA Finalist (KASNEB/Strathmore University). I also have certifications in senior management and strategic leadership from the Kenya School of Government, corporate governance from the Centre for Corporate Governance and other certifications in various areas of management including pensions scheme administration, ISO 9001:2015 and others.

I am a member of the Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Kenya (ICPAK).

I currently work as the Director, Corporate Services in charge of Finance, Human Resources and Administration at the Kenya Trade Network Agency (KENTRADE) from September 2020 and was previously Manager/Head of Finance from 2017 and Manager/Head of Internal Audit, Risk and Compliance in the same organization from 2013-2017. Previously I served as the Head of Internal Audit at the Coffee Development Fund (CoDF, now Commodities Fund) from 2010-2013 (where I also served a stint as the Acting Head of Finance and Administration), and in various capacities in accounts and internal audit at the Kenya Agricultural Research Institute (KARI, now KALRO) from 2000-2010.

I sit in the KARI Sacco Board of Management/Central Management Committee and have been National Vice Chairman since 2014. I am also the elected Chair of the Board of Trustees of the KenTrade Staff Pension Scheme, having been a Trustee since 2019. I am currently a member of the Parish Church Council (PCC) of ACK St Augustine Madaraka Church. I recently served in the Board of Directors of Advent Hill Primary School, and as Treasurer to the PTA from 2018-2020. I also serve in other boards and committees on a volunteer basis as a way to give back to society and the communities I am part of.

I have thus acquired wide experience in public finance management, audit, executive level management and governance over the past twenty-one years of service in various capacities.
