Profile

I hold a Master of Business Administration in Finance from Daystar University, a Bachelor of Commerce degree in Business Administration and Management from Daystar University, I am currently pursuing my Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) in Business, Finance Option at Kenyatta University. I am a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and I hold grants management and donor compliance certificates.

I have over 20 years' experience in financial and grants management for both profit and not for profit making organizations. I currently work as Head of Finance with Feed the Children Kenya overseeing Kenya, Uganda, and Tanzania where I have managed to execute short term and long term custom comprehensive financial strategies to reach organization goals and objectives.

I previously worked with Saferworld as Regional Finance Manager covering Kenya, Uganda Somalia and South Sudan for 8 years where I led the modelling and execution of cost recovery strategy from existing donor projects and acceptable future cost recovery ranges that were beneficial to the organization. I capacity built both finance and non-finance staff on sound financial management in line with acceptable accounting practices and IFRSs.

I have vast experience in the corporate sector, and I have been a part time lecturer at Management University of Africa (MUA) where I lectured courses in business.

I am a born-again Christian serving God in various capacities in my church. I currently serve as a church elder, after having served as treasurer where I put up financial system for the church enabling accurate recording and reporting. I believe in God first in all my undertakings.

My Involvement with Institute Affairs

I currently train with ICPAK on Taxes and matters of tax, Resource mobilization and fund raising, Project management and Grants management to NPOs. I have chaired several sessions of NPOs seminars in Mombasa and Annual General Seminar. I am a member of Management Accounts panel and NPOs Agenda panel that interrogates topics and emerging trends for seminar deliberations.
