YOUR MEMBERSHIP VALUE

The ICPAK Membership is,

- Respected, Recognized, and Future Ready
- Highly Influential, Enabled, and Supported
- Held to a high Ethical Standard
- Positively impacting Society

ICPAK is committed to supporting all its members in various ways.

ICPAK MEMBERSHIP ENHANCES YOU

Advancing your career

Members have access to any career opportunities in finance, audit, and accounting through the Institute's Econnect online bulletin and website for members' access and uptake.

Technical and standards support

Access a wealth of content, including technical releases, exposure drafts, seminar materials, updates on financial reporting, discussion papers, professional development, registration, and licensing, among others.

Learning interventions and offerings

Continuing professional development (CPD) is designed to develop your professional competence within your role and help you maintain that expertise throughout your career. CPD also demonstrates to your fellow members and the wider public that you are committed to remaining proficient and at the forefront of the profession.

CPD entails attending courses, seminars, conferences, watching webinars, listening to podcasts, coaching, and reading articles. For an activity to count as CPD, you will need to show how it is relevant to your role and has helped you to meet your learning needs.

Post-qualification programs

ICPAK offers a wide range of qualifications and leadership development programs that include certification courses in Enterprise Risk Management (ERM), IFRS, Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing, Board, and Board Audit Committee masterclasses.

ICPAK MEMBERSHIP ENABLES YOU

Networking through ICPAK Branches and Chapters

We aim to support you from wherever you work. Our branch offices provide the same services as those provided at the headquarters of the Institute. The Institute's chapters in Australia, South Africa, the United Kingdom, and America play a key role in bringing ICPAK members in those countries together for networking and pushing any agenda that may be common to their advancement. These chapters have fully functional boards running the affairs of ICPAK members in these countries.

Practice opportunity and support

ICPAK has implemented multiple license categories through which licensed members provide specialized accounting and auditing services as per each category. We support such members by providing specialized training, guidelines, illustrative templates, and toolkits.

ICPAK MEMBERSHIP ESTABLISHES YOU

Mentorship

ICPAK recognizes the value of mentorship and the role it plays in fast tracking career growth. Through the Institute's Trainee Accountant Practical Experience Framework (TAPEF) program, our Associate members are taken through practical training, supervised by experienced members, as part of their qualifications into full members. ICPAK undertakes career talks and mentorship sessions targeting students in high school, universities, and the CPA students.

Member lifestyle support

ICPAK has negotiated with a variety of renowned lifestyle brands to offer you the best possible benefits and discounts, from motor vehicle insurance, motor vehicle spare parts purchase, academic programs, and air and road emergency evacuation. Your membership also qualifies you to access the Institute's Benevolent Scheme benefits, which include last expense upon the demise of the principal member, spouse, children, parents, and parents-in-law.

Communication

ICPAK members are kept up to date on matters relating to the profession and technical developments via the Institute's many communications channels. Channels include ICPAK's social media, the bi-monthly magazine, 'The Accountant Journal', the online bulletin Econnect, the ICPAK WhatsApp group, and the Institute's website. Members easily reach out to the Institute through our Call Centre, real-time chat app, email, and telephone.

ICPAK MEMBERSHIP ALIGNS YOU

Regulation

ICPAK's role as a regulator is espoused in the Accountants' Act. ICPAK serves the interests of the accountancy profession and society by upholding professional standards and integrity. Members are adequately kept abreast of any changes in either the accounting or auditing standards, towards enhancing their understanding and application of the same effectively.

The Institute's disciplinary process plays an all-important role in maintaining the integrity of the members, the profession, and protecting the public interest. By exercising professional authority over its members, the ICPAK protects the public from unscrupulous practices, unprofessional or unethical conduct by its members.

Professional premiership

The CPA brand qualifies you as a certified and regulated accounting professional as defined in the Accountants Act. Our branding of the CPA is focused on presenting our members and associates as thought leaders and difference makers in society, towards upholding public interest.

Regional and international recognition

Your ICPAK membership opens opportunities for membership to other professional accountancy bodies within the East African region, Australia, and South Africa. With this membership comes work opportunities.

Advocacy and stakeholder engagement

Through advocacy and stakeholder engagement, ICPAK enables its members to participate in thought leadership discussions towards making a positive difference in the profession, society, and the economy. The Institute engages with various stakeholders locally and internationally to represent members' views towards relevant laws, government budgets, legislation, public financial and other key matters. ICPAK has representation on key relevant international, regional, and local boards, committees, and standards bodies.

Being part of service to ICPAK

Members who meet the set requirements are eligible to serve on the ICPAK Council, its committees, taskforces, workstreams and branch leadership, adding a voice on the growth and development of the Institute and the profession at large.

Making a difference in society

ICPAK plays an active role in the profession's transformation and growth through activities that grow the pipeline of future accountants on the one hand; while providing opportunities for the disadvantaged in the communities the Institute operates in.

Such activities include scholarship opportunities for bright but disadvantaged pupils to pursue university education in finance and accounting related courses, charity donations, mentorships and career talks, charity donations in cash and kind, sponsorships of projects towards environmental sustainability or the good of needy persons in the society.

ICPAK MEMBER VALUE ADDS FOR 2025

ICPAK has negotiated with a variety of renowned lifestyle brands to offer you the best possible benefits and discounts, from motor vehicle insurance, academic programs. Further through MoUs between the Institute and other professional accountancy organizations (PAOs) within the East African region and beyond, members enjoy recognition and are eligible to access the PAOs' membership and benefits accrued. Your membership also qualifies you to access the Institute's Benevolent Scheme benefits, which include last expense upon the demise of the principal member, spouse, children, parents, and parents-in-law.
