

CHAIRMAN'S NEWSLETTER

APRIL – JUNE 2026 | EDITION 2

Chairman's note

The accountancy profession stands at a defining moment. Across the world, expectations of accountants continue to evolve beyond financial reporting to encompass leadership, governance, sustainability, digital transformation, and the stewardship of public trust. As these expectations grow, so too does our responsibility to remain relevant, forward-looking, and firmly anchored in the public interest.

Guided by our Strategic Plan 2025–2029, Into the Future Through Excellence, ICPAK continues to position the profession to respond confidently to this changing landscape. During the second quarter of 2026, we made deliberate progress in strengthening institutions, empowering our members, deepening partnerships, and advancing initiatives that contribute to Kenya's economic and social development.

One of the defining features of the quarter was the continued expansion of our collaboration with county governments, county assemblies, universities, regulators, and other strategic partners. These engagements are founded on a shared conviction that strong institutions, ethical leadership, and sound public financial management are indispensable to sustainable development. Through these partnerships, we continue to promote professional excellence while supporting transparency, accountability, and effective service delivery across both the public and private sectors.

The successful convening of our 48th Annual General Meeting was another significant milestone. Beyond fulfilling our governance obligations, the AGM reaffirmed our collective commitment to transparency, accountability, and the continued advancement of the profession. I sincerely thank every member who participated and congratulate CPA Olive Gitau on her re-election to Council, reflecting the confidence members continue to place in her leadership and service.

Equally encouraging has been our growing investment in preparing members for the future. Through technical forums, leadership engagements, sustainability reporting initiatives, taxation programmes, and data protection guidance, we have continued to equip professionals with the competencies required to thrive in an increasingly digital, interconnected, and rapidly evolving business environment. Our commitment remains clear: to ensure that every CPA is not only technically proficient but also prepared to lead organisational transformation and create lasting value.

Beyond our professional mandate, we continued to demonstrate that the accountancy profession has a broader responsibility to society. Whether supporting learners through community projects, empowering Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises, advancing financial literacy, or contributing to environmental conservation, our initiatives reflect our belief that professional excellence must always be accompanied by meaningful social impact.

I am particularly encouraged by the unwavering commitment demonstrated by our members, branches, Council, partners, and the Secretariat. Your dedication continues to strengthen the standing of the profession and reinforces the confidence that society places in Certified Public Accountants as trusted advisors, ethical leaders, and catalysts for national development.

As we look ahead, we must continue embracing innovation, strengthening governance, and upholding the highest standards of integrity and professionalism. Together, we have an opportunity not only to respond to change but to shape it—to position the profession at the centre of building resilient institutions, sustainable businesses, and a more prosperous Kenya.

On behalf of the Council, I thank every member and stakeholder for your continued support, partnership, and commitment to our shared vision. I remain confident that together, we will continue building a future-ready profession that creates lasting value for our members, our institutions, and our nation.

CPA Prof. Elizabeth Kalunda
Chairman, ICPAK

Strengthening Public Financial Management and MSME Capacity in Busia County

ICPAK continued to strengthen its collaboration with county governments through an engagement with the Busia County Assembly aimed at enhancing public financial management, legislative development, and capacity building for county assembly committees and accounting professionals.

Led by Council Member FCPA Georgina Malombe, the engagement brought together ICPAK leadership, the Western Branch, and the Secretariat with Busia County Assembly Speaker H.E. Hon. Fredrick Wafula and Clerk CPA Allan Mabuka. Discussions focused on strengthening governance and accountability frameworks, while also exploring ways to providing technical support to Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) within the county.

In partnership with the Busia County Government, the Kenya Revenue Authority, and the Kenya National Chamber of Commerce and Industry, the Institute also conducted a capacity-building forum for MSMEs to enhance financial literacy, promote tax compliance, and support business sustainability among local entrepreneurs.

The visit culminated in a Corporate Social Responsibility initiative at Mundere Special School, where ICPAK participated in a groundbreaking ceremony for a new facility and undertook a tree-planting exercise, reaffirming the Institute's commitment to community development and environmental stewardship.

Strengthening Public Financial Management Through MoU with Bungoma County Assembly

ICPAK reinforced its commitment to strengthening public financial management and good governance at the county level through the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding

(MoU) with the County Assembly of Bungoma on 10 April 2026.

Led by Chairman CPA Prof. Elizabeth Kalunda, the Institute's delegation held discussions with the County Assembly leadership, led by Speaker H.E. Hon. Emmanuel Situma and Clerk Mr. Charles Wafula. The partnership seeks to promote capacity building, strengthen governance structures, and enhance public financial management practices within the county.

Both parties reaffirmed their commitment to implementing the MoU and fostering closer collaboration in support of public sector reforms, institutional effectiveness, and accountability in the management of public resources.

The partnership reflects ICPAK's continued role as a trusted partner to county governments, leveraging technical expertise, professional development, and strategic collaboration to promote transparency and strengthen service delivery for the benefit of citizens.

Advancing MSME Empowerment and Climate Action in West Pokot

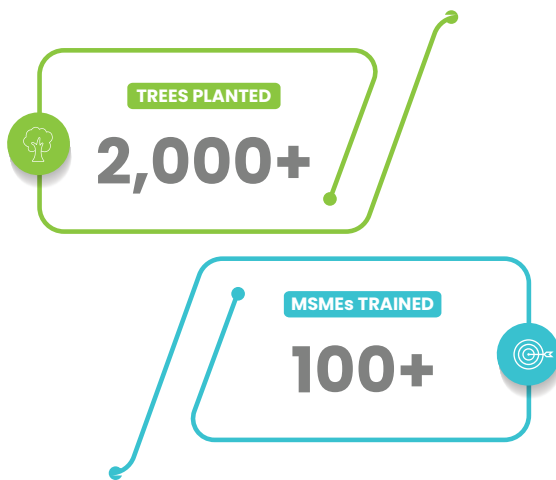

Through its North Rift Branch, ICPAK partnered with the County Government of West Pokot, the Kenya Revenue Authority, the Micro and Small Enterprises Authority (MSEA), and the Kenya National Chamber of Commerce and Industry to deliver a capacity-building programme for Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) in Kapenguria.

The initiative equipped entrepreneurs with practical skills in bookkeeping, financial management, and tax compliance, while also raising awareness of government support programmes available to small businesses. By strengthening financial literacy and enterprise management, the programme sought to enhance business sustainability and stimulate economic growth at the grassroots level.

In line with its commitment to environmental stewardship, ICPAK also participated in a tree-planting exercise at Karas Forest, where 2,000 trees were planted in support of the national tree-growing initiative and efforts to promote climate resilience.

The programme demonstrates ICPAK's leadership in empowering businesses, advancing financial inclusion, and contributing to sustainable economic and environmental development across the country.

Advancing Public Finance Reforms in Elgeyo Marakwet

ICPAK Chairman CPA Prof. Elizabeth Kalunda, accompanied by Council Members FCPA Georgina Malombe, CPA Wycliffe Bichanga, and CPA Chrispus Mbogo, engaged the County Government of Elgeyo Marakwet in discussions aimed at strengthening transparency, accountability, and public financial management.

The ICPAK delegation was received by County Secretary and Head of Public Service Mr. Lazarus Chebii, alongside CECM for Finance and Economic Planning Mr. Alphaus Tanui and senior county finance officials. Discussions centred on providing technical support to enhance the quality of financial reporting and governance.

The engagement also laid the groundwork for a formal partnership through a proposed Memorandum of Understanding (MoU), underscoring ICPAK's continued commitment to supporting county governments to advance public sector reforms, strengthening financial management systems, and promoting accountability in the stewardship of public resources.

Building the Next Generation of Accounting Professionals Through Strategic Academic Partnership with the University of Eldoret

ICPAK continued to deepen its stakeholder partnerships through a courtesy visit to the University of Eldoret, led by Council Members CPA Chrispus Mbogo and CPA Wycliffe Bichanga.

The delegation was received by Deputy Vice Chancellor, Administration and Finance, Prof. Wilson Ng'etich, on behalf of Vice Chancellor Prof. Thomas Cheruiyot.

The discussions explored strategic areas of collaboration, including collaboration opportunities for the 7th ICPAK Research Conference, discounted academic programmes for CPA members, enhanced professional development opportunities for accounting students, and capacity-building initiatives for university staff.

The engagement underscores ICPAK's commitment to strengthening linkages between academia and industry, advancing research and innovation, and nurturing the next generation of accounting professionals equipped to meet the evolving demands of the profession and the wider economy.

Positioning CPAs as Catalysts for Good Governance

ICPAK hosted its inaugural Strategic Breakfast Meeting with nominated board representatives, bringing together Council Members, board appointees, and the Secretariat to enhance the Institute's governance impact and strategic influence across key institutions.

Led by Chairman CPA Prof. Elizabeth Kalunda, the engagement focused on positioning CPAs as champions of good governance, strengthening accountability through structured performance evaluation, expanding representation in leadership spaces, and reinforcing ethical leadership and values-driven service.

The meeting reaffirmed ICPAK's commitment to empowering members serving boards, task forces, and other governance structures to provide effective oversight and contribute to sustainable institutional performance. It also underscored the Institute's dedication to promoting professionalism, integrity, and responsible leadership in support of the public interest.

Partnering with Kisii County to Strengthen Governance and Revenue Mobilization

ICPAK Chairman CPA Prof. Elizabeth Kalunda, accompanied by Council Members FCPA Georgina Malombe, CPA Olive Gitau, CPA Chrispus Mbogo, and CPA Wycliffe Bichanga, as well as branch leaders, engaged Kisii County Deputy Governor H.E. Elijah Obebo on strengthening public financial management and governance within the county.

The discussions focused on improving audit outcomes, enhancing the capacity of county officers, promoting the appointment of qualified accountants to key public sector positions, and supporting MSMEs in achieving eTIMS compliance. The engagement also explored strategies to strengthen the county's own-source revenue through improved tax compliance and financial literacy.

Both parties reaffirmed their commitment to formalizing collaboration through a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) to advance accountability, good governance, and sustainable economic development.

Enhancing Learner Welfare Through Community Impact in Nyamira

ICPAK, through its Nyanza Branch, officially launched a modern kitchen at Iranya Primary School in Gesima Sub-County, Nyamira County, reaffirming the Institute's commitment to community development and the well-being of learners.

The project was launched by ICPAK Chairman CPA Prof. Elizabeth Kalunda, accompanied by Council Members FCPA Georgina Malombe and CPA Wycliffe Bichang'a, alongside Nyanza Branch leaders led by CPA David Okumu and CPA Julia Ohore. The modern facility is expected to improve nutrition, promote better health, and provide a more conducive learning environment for pupils at the school.

During the event, the Institute reaffirmed its commitment to giving back to society through initiatives that create lasting impact and encouraged learners to embrace the values of discipline, hard work, and integrity.

The occasion also featured a tree-planting exercise, reflecting ICPAK's dedication to environmental conservation and sustainable development.

The initiative underscores the profession's commitment to creating positive change beyond the workplace and contributing to the well-being of communities across the country.

Promoting Values-Based Leadership Through the Luminary Men Accountants and Leaders Conference

ICPAK hosted the inaugural Luminary Men Accountants and Leaders Conference, bringing together professionals and leaders for discussions on leadership, mentorship, accountability, and personal growth.

Held under the theme “Empowering Men for Transformative Leadership in Different Spheres,” the conference provided a platform for participants to examine the role of men in shaping stronger organizations, communities, and future generations through intentional leadership, accountability, service, and mentorship.

Led by ICPAK Chairman CPA Prof. Elizabeth Kalunda and Vice Chairman FCPA Benard Amukah, the conference highlighted the Institute’s commitment to nurturing values-based leadership and supporting professionals to make a positive contribution within their areas of work and service.

ICPAK ANNUAL SEMINAR 2026 EMPOWERS ACCOUNTANTS TO LEAD ORGANISATIONAL TRANSFORMATION

The Institute's 43rd Annual Seminar brought together accounting professionals, business leaders, policymakers, and industry experts to address some of the most pressing issues facing the profession today, from the rapid advancement of artificial intelligence and digital finance to the growing need for ethical leadership, sustainability, and public trust.

Held in Mombasa in May and streamed virtually, the Seminar attracted 3,551 in-person delegates across three venues, alongside 571 virtual participants, reaffirming its position as one of the region's premier professional development forums.

Under the theme, "Leading with Influence – Accountants as Architects of Organisational Growth and Transformation," the Seminar challenged accountants to move beyond their traditional financial stewardship role and embrace their position as strategic leaders driving organisational growth, innovation, and national development. Through insightful discussions, expert presentations, and practical learning sessions, participants explored how the profession can confidently lead organisations through an increasingly complex, technology-driven, and rapidly evolving business environment.

ICPAK extends its sincere appreciation to all members, speakers, partners, sponsors, exhibitors, and stakeholders whose participation and support made this landmark Seminar a resounding success.

Championing Evidence-Based Tax Reforms for Economic Growth: Finance Bill 2026 Proposals

ICPAK, led by Public Finance and Tax Committee Convenor FCPA Robert Waruiru, appeared before the Parliamentary Departmental Committee on Finance and National Planning to present the Institute's proposals on the Finance Bill 2026, reaffirming its commitment to contributing to sound and evidence-based fiscal policy.

The Institute raised key concerns regarding proposed tax measures, including changes to the VAT treatment of selected products, expanded tax obligations on digital payments, administrative compliance requirements, and the widening of KRA's enforcement powers. ICPAK also advocated for a more progressive PAYE structure by increasing the lowest tax band threshold and expanding income bands to ease the tax burden on lower-income earners.

In addition, the Institute called for measures to safeguard the competitiveness of local industries, promote fiscal policy predictability, and ensure tax reforms remain guided by data-driven analysis. ICPAK also welcomed proposals aimed at addressing system-generated tax errors while recommending enhanced relief mechanisms for affected taxpayers.

The engagement underscores ICPAK's role as a trusted voice in national policy discourse, championing tax reforms that foster economic growth, enhance competitiveness, and support a more conducive environment for businesses and taxpayers. Further details are available in the Institute's submissions on the Finance Bill 2026.

Advancing Leadership Excellence for Sustainable Growth at the Mt. Kenya Regional Summit

ICPAK's Mt. Kenya Branch convened its Regional Summit under the theme, "Advancing Leadership Excellence and Professional Accountancy for Sustainable Growth," bringing together members and industry leaders for two days of learning, engagement, and professional development.

The Summit provided a platform for discussions on leadership, governance, technology, sustainability, and professional resilience, equipping participants with valuable insights and practical strategies to navigate an increasingly dynamic business environment. Delegates also explored approaches for strengthening institutional resilience, enhancing public trust, and driving sustainable growth.

Beyond the technical sessions, the forum fostered knowledge sharing, networking, and collaboration among professionals, underscoring the importance of collective learning in addressing emerging opportunities and challenges. The Summit further reaffirmed ICPAK's commitment to continuous professional development and the cultivation of leadership excellence within the profession.

48th AGM Reaffirms Commitment to Excellence and the Public Interest

ICPAK successfully convened its 48th Annual General Meeting (AGM) on 5 June 2026 at Safari Park Hotel, Nairobi, with members also participating virtually from across the country. The AGM provided an important platform for members to review the Institute's performance, deliberate on key governance matters, and contribute to shaping the future direction of the profession.

Members adopted the Institute's Annual Report and Financial Statements for the year ended 31 December 2025, reaffirming ICPAK's commitment to professional excellence, accountability, and the public interest. The meeting also provided an update on the implementation of the Strategic Plan 2025–2029, Into the Future Through Excellence, highlighting the Institute's continued focus on delivering value to members and strengthening its impact on society.

A key highlight of the AGM was a presentation by KCA University Vice Chancellor and CEO, Prof. Isaiah Wakindiki, who shared insights on the University's financial performance and strategic progress.

The meeting also witnessed the re-election of CPA Olive Gitau to the ICPAK Council for a second term, underscoring members' continued confidence in the Institute's leadership and governance structures.

Preparing Kenyan Entities for the Future of Sustainability Reporting

ICPAK issued an advisory to support Kenyan entities in preparing for the adoption of the IFRS Sustainability Disclosure Standards (IFRS S1 and IFRS S2), reinforcing the country's transition towards globally recognized sustainability reporting practices.

The advisory outlines key timelines, readiness requirements, and reporting expectations as Kenya implements its phased adoption roadmap. Public Interest Entities (PIEs) will be required to adopt the standards from 1 January 2027, with readiness assessments expected ahead of the mandatory reporting date. The standards will require organizations to disclose sustainability-related risks and opportunities, governance arrangements, and climate-related impacts that influence long-term value creation.

Through the advisory, ICPAK continues to play a leading role in supporting organizations and professionals to enhance transparency, strengthen stakeholder confidence, and align with evolving global expectations on sustainability and climate-related disclosures.

Read the full advisory on the ICPAK website.

Strengthening Data Privacy and Regulatory Compliance Among Members

ICPAK launched the Data Protection Guide for Members to support accountants in navigating the evolving data privacy and regulatory landscape. The guide provides practical guidance on compliance with the Data Protection Act, 2019 and helps members better understand their responsibilities in safeguarding personal data and managing information ethically and securely.

As organizations increasingly rely on data-driven processes, the guide seeks to enhance members' awareness of privacy obligations and promote best practices in the collection, processing, storage, and protection of personal information.

The initiative reflects ICPAK's commitment to equipping members with the knowledge and tools needed to respond to emerging regulatory requirements while upholding the highest standards of professionalism, ethics, and public trust.

Further information is available in the Institute's release on the Data Protection Guide for Members.

Read the full Data Protection Guide on the ICPAK website.

ICPAK Engages Makueni University College

On 29th May 2026, ICPAK, led by Vice Chairman FCPA Benard Amukah, paid a courtesy call to the Principal of Makueni University College, Prof. Jonathan Muema Mwanja. The delegation was accompanied by members of the ICPAK Eastern Branch EXCOM led by Chairman CPA Felix Mulwa, together with members of the Secretariat.

The discussions centered on potential areas of collaboration, including partnership opportunities in professional training and research, strengthening linkages between the accounting profession and academia, mentorship and career development opportunities for students, capacity building initiatives for university staff, and support for CPA students pursuing professional and academic advancement.

The engagement also explored opportunities for joint programmes aimed at enhancing financial management, governance, and leadership skills among students and professionals, while fostering closer collaboration between ICPAK and Makueni University College.

Both parties reaffirmed their commitment to continued engagement and agreed to hold regular consultative meetings to review progress and coordinate the implementation of the agreed areas of collaboration. Later, the ICPAK team in collaboration with Kasneb conducted a mentorship session at Wote Technical Training Institute, where students were engaged on the accounting profession, examination pathways, career development, personal development and opportunities available through the CPA qualification. The session concluded with a tree-planting exercise in support of environmental conservation efforts.

Honouring Our Departed Members

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE TO THE FAMILY OF THE LATE CPA ANDREW WAFULA SULULU

We join the family, friends and ICPAK fraternity in the mourning of CPA Andrew Wafula Sululu who passed away on 31st March 2026. He was a member of ICPAK, member number 9151 and served at the KRA, Regional Audit Centre in Western region.

He was known for his professionalism, dedication, and integrity, leaving a lasting impact on those he worked with. His contribution to the profession and his commitment to service will be remembered and cherished.

On behalf of the ICPAK Council, Management, staff, and the entire membership, we convey our heartfelt condolences to his family, friends, colleagues at the Kenya Revenue Authority, and the wider accounting fraternity. May you find comfort, strength, and peace during this difficult time.

Philippians 4:7

And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

May his soul rest in eternal peace.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE TO THE FAMILY OF THE LATE CPA MICHAEL MUTHIANI

It is with profound sorrow that we stand with the family, friends, and colleagues of CPA Michael Muthiani, following his passing.

CPA Michael was an ICPAK member (No. 3029), the Treasurer of Nyali Golf & Country Club, and a practitioner at Triple M Certified Public Accountants. He will be remembered for his professionalism, integrity, and exemplary service. His contributions to both the Club and the accounting profession leave behind a lasting and meaningful legacy.

On behalf of the ICPAK Council, Management, staff, and the entire membership, we extend our heartfelt condolences to his family, friends, and colleagues during this difficult time. May they find comfort, strength, and peace as we celebrate his life and impact.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE TO THE FAMILY OF THE LATE CPA GLADYS NANYAMA MUYUNDO

It is with profound sorrow that we received the news of the passing of CPA Gladys Nanyama Muyundo (ICPAK Member No. 1742). CPA Gladys was a distinguished accounting professional and former Finance Manager, Pan African Paper Mills (EA) Ltd.

CPA Gladys made significant contributions to governance, education and community service through her roles at the County Government of Bungoma Audit Committee, Friends School Kamusinga, St. Joseph's Primary School, and St. Cecilia Girls Misikhu. Her leadership, commitment to good governance, and mentorship left an enduring impact on the organisations she served and on the accounting profession.

On behalf of the ICPAK Council, Management, staff and members, we extend our deepest condolences to her family, friends and colleagues. May you find comfort in cherished memories and strength in the legacy she leaves behind.

John 14:27: "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid."

May her soul rest in eternal peace.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE TO THE FAMILY OF THE LATE FCPA ALLOYCE OTIENO ABOKA

We are deeply saddened by the passing of FCPA Alloyce Otieno Aboka (Member No. 1502), a dedicated practitioner at Otieno Aboka & Company and a highly respected member of the ICPAK fraternity.

FCPA Aboka was an accomplished professional whose commitment to excellence, integrity, and service earned him the admiration and respect of colleagues, clients, and peers alike. Throughout his distinguished career, he made significant contributions to the growth and advancement of the accountancy profession, leaving a legacy of professionalism, wisdom, and service that will continue to inspire generations to come.

His passing is a great loss not only to the profession, but also to all who had the privilege of knowing and working with him. He will be remembered for his sound counsel, exemplary professionalism, mentorship, and unwavering dedication to upholding the highest standards of ethical practice.

On behalf of the ICPAK Council, Management, staff, and the entire membership, we extend our heartfelt condolences to his family, friends, colleagues, and loved ones during this time of profound grief. May the cherished memories of his life, his values, and the legacy he leaves behind bring comfort, strength, and peace to all who mourn his passing.

As Scripture reminds us in 2 Timothy 4:7:

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith."

May his soul rest in everlasting peace.
